

STYLE

IF YOU LIKE Edith Piaf, you'll love the enchanting new film La Môme (La Vie en Rose), starring Marion Cotillard as the sultry French chanteuse...

IF YOU LIKE Monet's pastel depictions of country scenes, on display at the Unknown Monet exhibition at the Royal Academy (until June 10)...

...you'll love the colourful full-bloom roses that tumble from Alexander McQueen's gowns (right)...

...and be transported by Peter Doig's landscape paintings featured in a new book about the artist's work (Phaidon, £25).

...and delight in the whimsical sepia-tinged photos in Couples (Abrams, £8), or the dainty flowered headbands, from £300, by Louis Vuitton...

...just after Corbier's exquisite Cresse d'orchidées ring, (price on application)...

follow the leader

Whether you're a fan of whimsical art, punk rock or floral fashion, Jo Craven's style round-ups will keep you in the loop this month

...enjoy a touch of nostalgia for days gone by while sipping tea at Postcard Teas, 110 Dering Street, W1.

IF YOU LIKE Gareth Pugh's otherworldly outfits (left)...

...you'll love Zaha Hadid's sinister "Swarm" chandelier from Established & Sons, which looks like, well, a swarm of black flies; and Damien Hirst's spectacular diamond-encrusted skull, on display at White Cube Hoxton Square...

...on a smaller scale, you'll enjoy Tom Binns's skull jewellery, from £460, from a selection at Net-a-Porter.com, and Kitty Aldridge's sad tale Cryers Hill (Cape, £17)...

...and delight in the disturbing images in Taryn Simon's new book An American Index of the Hidden and Unfamiliar (Steidl, £40)...

...or want to draw inspiration from the underworld and pick up a Skullduggery chair, £495 (Bambarock.com)...

...TV ALBUM CRISTINA MILE

